TEACHER TRAINING PROGRAM ACCREDITATION
APPLICATION FORM A: INTERIM STATUS PROGRAM REPORT

Interim accreditation is provided for programs that meet all the requirements, but have not yet been offered for a full cycle as outlined on the TESL Canada website. Interim status is necessary to ensure that programs are ongoing and have been pilot tested and evaluated. Programs holding interim status will be listed on the TESL Canada website. During the interim accreditation period, the program must submit a TESL Canada Interim Status Program Report (Form A). The report will include the number of trainees per session, a description of the facilities, teacher trainers' qualifications and trainee evaluations. The program must report any significant changes to the program that were not submitted in the original application, i.e. staff, facilities, curriculum.
