

Position Title: IELTS Speaking Examiner

Location: Greater Vancouver Area, BC

Job Description:

The IELTS Examiner will expertly assess candidates, with the consistency and standards as set out by IELTS, in the speaking module of the IELTS test. The Examiner will be responsible for maintaining the integrity of the test and ensure a fair testing procedure is followed for all candidates in the speaking module.

Responsibilities:

- Examine candidates regularly (Saturdays afternoon and possible Thursday afternoon), for the speaking module of the IELTS test at designated test sessions
- Maintain confidentiality and security in all aspects of IELTS
- Comply fully with the Examiner Code of Practice and IELTS Confidentiality Undertaking
- Undertake scheduled standardization training and re-certification

Qualifications:

- An undergraduate degree in a related field or area
- A recognized qualification in TESOL/TESL/TEFOL
- At least three-year's full time (or the equivalent of part time) relevant TESOL teaching experience with the majority relating to adult students (16 years and over)
- Punctual, dependable and responsible

How to apply: For more information on the Minimum Professional Requirements and an application form, please submit your cover letter and resume to: ielts.toronto@idp.com. Please include "IELTS Examiner" in the subject line of the email submission.

Salary: $45/hour

Company Description:

IDP Education is a global organization, listed on the ASX, with majority ownership held by the 38 Australian universities, and headquartered in Melbourne, Australia. IDP's main activities include: student placement to Australia, US, UK, Canada and New Zealand; English-language testing and training; and global education events.

IELTS, the world's leading English-language proficiency test, is delivered at over 900 test locations in 130 countries, with IDP IELTS test centres operating in more than 45 countries. Over 9000 universities, education providers, government and professional bodies rely upon IELTS to assess an individual's English-language proficiency for the purpose of study, migration and professional practice.