Yalda Ahmadvand	Judy Sillito	Joy Lin Salzberg
Andrea Leitch-Blake	Eric Violago

Mandate:

The role of the committee is to:

1. Promote the teaching and learning of English as an additional language by facilitating professional learning grants that are aligned with TESL Canada’s vision, through the development, management and distribution of grants. The grants for the year include 4 grants (two in spring and two in fall), valued at $250 each.
2. Promote the teaching and learning of English as an additional language by facilitating the offering of one scholarship to a TESL Canada recognized teacher training program (e.g. Standard 1, Standard 2, Standard 3), valued at $500.
3. Manage the grant, scholarship and award funds through various fund-raising activities.
4. Publicize and award the grants and scholarship to eligible candidates at face to face and/or virtual conferences or events held by TESL Canada affiliate organizations.
5. Promote the field of English as an additional language by collaborating with other TESL Canada committees to offer awards, to a maximum of $200, to eligible candidates based on defined criteria.
6. Maintain accountability measures so that the grants, scholarship, and awards are used for their intended purpose.
7. Abide by the TCEF By-laws in all dealings and submit an annual report to BC Charities in November of each year.

Goals and/or Objectives:

1. Promote the "Donate" button on the TCEF website (collaborate with other TESL Canada committees in the promotion).
2. Partner with other TESL Canada committees (e.g., Professional Development, Outreach) to discuss possibilities for fundraising.
3. Discuss fundraising possibilities with TESL Canada affiliate organizations. Support their conferences with value-added options (e.g., sponsorship of their conferences in the form silent auctions, etc.).
4. To hold, invest, administer and distribute funds and property for the purposes of the society as presently set out and for such other organizations as are "qualified donors" under the provisions of the Income Tax Act and for such other purposes. and activities which are authorized for registered charities under the provisions of the Income Tax Act. The directors in their sole and absolute discretion may refuse to accept any bequests, trusts, funds or property; and
