20+ new job openings as we expand in China

Want to start a new adventure on the other side of the world?

We are looking for graduates to take on ESL positions in a number of different cities in China. Whether you have left university and would like to gain high-caliber international teaching experience, or would just like to travel and take on a new challenge, we can provide an opportunity of a lifetime. Our high-energy jobs will allow you to teach your native language in a welcoming environment, as well as offering you the unique experience of sampling a wealth of Eastern culture.

Come join our team!

This year 80% of our teachers finished their contracts, renewed and continued with us.

M.E.F. was established in Japan over 15 years ago and expanded to China a couple years ago. M.E.F. offers one of the best training systems, full teacher support and a full line of educational resources for teachers to use. Most importantly, we bridge the culture gap making it so that teachers have the best experience in China.

Responsibilities:

- Teaching kindergarten to primary aged children
- Planning your lessons using our M.E.F. developed curriculum
- Creating a fun and engaging lesson plan that will make students want to learn
- Monitoring student progress
- 5 days per week
- Max. 30 teaching hours per week (Max. 40 hours onsite)

Two types of positions. Applicants are able to give their preference.

- Option1: Full time kindergarten. Monday to Friday, 4 to 6 teaching hours per day. Normally days are from 8:30 to 5:30 and children have nap time for at least 2 hours.
- Option2: Different locations or inside a language school. These teachers work less hours (sometimes half the number of hours compared to full time kindergarten teachers, 5 days per week but not set Saturday/Sunday off. Usually they have a mix of classes (so not only kindergarten).

Necessary Skills:

- Flexible, polite and culturally respectful and understand, easy going, cheerful and able to care and connect with children.
- Full training: no experience necessary.

Strict Requirements (no exceptions):

- Must have a Bachelor's degree (or higher)
- Hold a passport one of the following countries: Canada, USA, UK, Australia, New Zealand
- Clear Police Check
- TESL Certification Required (support given for teachers without their TESL/TEFL certification)
