

Contractor Opportunities

Development of an Oral Language Assessment Tool for the Health Industry

Title	Description & Qualifications	Responsibilities	Start & End Dates (inclus.)	Intensity
Content Developer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Language assessment professional with experience in language assessment • Extensive experience in English and/or French as additional language pedagogy • Post-secondary education in the area of education, pedagogy, and/or language • Experience in LSP language assessment development an asset 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Develop tasks, protocols, and scoring procedures of the assessment • Liaise with project team in development and pilot test preparation • Produce field test materials • Record observations during pilot assessment • Review results of pilot test and advise on adjustments • Prepare and produce final training package 	January 2019 – June 2019	Full time
Measurement Specialist	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experienced psychometrician • Post-secondary education in the area of education/language psychology • Language assessment professional with experience in language assessment development 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Contribute to design of assessment model • Review task-writing process & products • Design scoring procedures • Determine sample size • Specify pilot assessment requirements, including test site, protocols, etc. • Analyze pilot data • Prepare technical report on validity & reliability of assessment 	December 2018 – December 2019	6-10 days

Contact: Jesse Kerpan, Coordinator – Special Programs & International Partnerships
Jesse.kerpan@ccnb.ca 506-377-2565