

William and Mary International Academy Beijing (WMIA) is the representative of international Montessori Organizations School. It's built around the foundations of grace courtesy and safety. Through high-quality virtue storybooks, songs, dramatic play cards and activities, William and Mary attempt to install important moral values. Both child and parent are greatly encouraged by the virtues, which include confidence, compassion, courage, honesty, respect, responsibility, and tolerance. WMIA is built on a 5,000sqm that's located in the center of Beijing city (Xicheng District) close to the Taoranting Park and is separated into seven Montessori education classrooms, indoor playground, library, art gallery, cooking classroom, golf training room and a Music and Dance Theater. Classrooms are fully equipped with IQ-air air purifiers to ensure a good indoor air quality environment. WMIA stresses the importance of children's food safety, therefore, choosing organic vegetables, organic milk, and non-transgenic oil to prepare meals for the children. WMIA has a comprehensive English program that allow children to learn English in a stress-free environment building both their confidence and English proficiencies.
